Action: Check the booking calendar for your club

Beach Education programmes resume this week with the start of the school term. Please make sure the Beach Ed kits haven't been misplaced over the summer and that you have your booking calendars all up to date.

You will be sent your updated bookings for your club this week, please get in touch with Sarah if you have any questions or there are any clashes with your own bookings. Please keep us posted on any changes within your club in terms of contact people, access to the club or club procedures.

Bookings are up this year with plenty of interest from schools still wanting to book days, a big thank you to all the clubs that we run Beach Education from for opening your club to the community and enabling us to provide this vital education to school children.

Kind regards,

Sarah Mortimer
