Attention: All SLSNR Members

Action: Apply for this position

It is with sadness we have accepted SLSNR Community Education Manager Sarah Mortimer's resignation. Sarah joined the Surf Life Saving Northern Region team in January 2016 and was instrumental in the rapid growth and development of our Community Education programmes. Sarah will not be lost to the movement completely, as she moves to become Surf Life Saving Eastern Region Beach Education Supervisor. Sarah will take the opportunity presented by this part time role to focus more on her other business interest, Zeenya clothing, which is based in the Bay of Plenty. Sarah's last day with Surf Life Saving Northern Region will be Friday 07th July and we'd like to thank Sarah for her dedication and successes in the role and wish her the very best.

Sarah's departure leaves a vacancy, which we are now actively recruiting for. Details of the position and the application process can be found here.
