

Duty Officer

The role of the Duty Officer is help patrols and SurfCom during or after major incidents or situations as an option to call for advice or guidance. The Duty Officer is someone with a lot of Lifesaving knowledge that help patrols that maybe under resourced when they roam whilst on duty.

This role also helps member with support after a major indecent that needs a debriefing or peer support services.

Prerequisites:

- Financial member of a Club
- 20 years old
- Surf Lifeguard Award (refreshed)
- First aid level one & two
- IRB Drivers Award
- Full motor vehicle license
- Five years patrolling experience

Desirable Qualifications:

- CIMS 2 or 4
- Peer support training
- Sound communication skills
- Leadership & decision making qualities
- Professionalism
- Ability to multitask & work under pressure
- Customer orientated manner

Proudly
Supported by:

