Surf Life Saving Northern Region Office today said farewell to Zane Rademaker – Support Services Supervisor who is off on a new journey and role with Coastguard Northern Region.

Zane started with SLSNR 3 years ago and has transformed the area of support services. His involvement in the RWC sphere has been second to none.

The Support Services within SLSNR have continued to thrive and grow under his watchful eye and the volunteer backing Zane has received throughout his time in the Support Services role has been outstanding.

We wish Zane all the best with his future endeavors and look forward to working with him as a volunteer in the Support Services space.
